MEMORANDUM FOR COMMANDER, U.S. ARMY CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION
COMMAND
DIRECTOR, NAVAL CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE SERVICE
COMMANDER, AIR FORCE OFFICE OF SPECIAL INVESTIGATIONS

SUBJECT: Evaluation of Military Criminal Investigative Organization Sexual Assault
Investigations (Project No. 2013C028)

The Office of Inspector General will evaluate Military Criminal Investigative Organization (MCIO) sexual assault investigations. The overall objective is to determine whether the MCIOs investigate sexual assault complaints as required by pertinent policy guidance. The evaluation scope will consider sexual assault investigations with adult victims closed in 2013. Evaluation objectives are to determine whether:

- MCIO policies and procedures for investigating sexual assault complaints involving adult victims comply with DoD and Military Service guidelines, and
- MCIOs complete sexual assault investigations with adult victims as required by guiding policies.

We will provide a request for data with detailed parameters by separate correspondence. Please identify a point of contact knowledgeable of your agency's adult sexual assault investigative standards, processes, procedures, and records repository operations by December 31, 2013. You may wish to make notifications regarding this evaluation within your respective Military Service as you consider appropriate.
