

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

United States
Coast Guard

MARINE BOARD OF INVESTIGATION

Commander Scott W. Muller

Marine Board of Investigation Chairman

U.S. Coast Guard

Cdr. Scott Muller has served as the Chief, Inspections and Investigations Branch Fifth District Prevention Division since June 2015.

As a Marine Safety Professional, Cdr. Muller's past assignments include marine inspection and investigation tours at Marine Safety Offices Hampton Roads and Tampa, project manager at the Office of Vessel Activities and most recently as Chief Prevention Department at Sector Mobile.

While attending New York Maritime College, Cdr. Muller started his Coast Guard career in 1993 as an enlisted reservist stationed at Captain of the Port and Marine Inspection Office New York. Upon graduation from New York Maritime in 1996, Cdr. Muller received a Maritime Graduate direct commission as an officer in the Coast Guard.

Cdr. Muller holds two master's degrees from Old Dominion University; the first in Secondary Education and the second in Modeling and Simulation with a concentration in Human-Computer Interaction thru the Coast Guard's Marine Engineering Post Graduate Program.

