

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

United States
Coast Guard

MARINE BOARD OF INVESTIGATION

Lieutenant Commander Pedro Mendoza

Marine Board of Investigation

U.S. Coast Guard

Lieutenant Commander Pedro Mendoza transferred to Coast Guard Headquarters in Washington D.C. as a marine casualty reviewer in July 2015.

Lt. Cmdr. Mendoza joined the Coast Guard in 1998. Upon graduating from bootcamp, he was stationed at USCGC ATTU in San Juan, PR. He advanced to Yeoman 3rd Class and was soon transferred to Group St. Petersburg where he quickly advanced to Yeoman 2nd Class. He then transferred to the Maritime Safety & Security Team Miami where he quickly advanced to Yeoman 1st Class. He was selected to attend Officer Candidate School at the end of year 2005.

As a Marine Safety Professional, Lt. Cmdr. Mendoza's past assignments include Sector Houston-Galveston as a Marine Inspector, Marine Safety Unit Morgan City as a Marine Investigator, Sector Key West servicing as the Chief, Investigations Division and most recently conducted Marine Investigation's Industry Training.

Lt. Cdmr. Mendoza holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Sports Management from Springfield College, MA. He also holds a Master of Science Degree in Quality Systems Management from the National Graduate School of Quality Management.

