

OFS IN BRIEF

The 11th quarterly report submitted by the Lead Inspector General for Operation Freedom's Sentinel (OFS) summarizes the quarter's key events and oversight of the two complementary U.S. missions in Afghanistan: counterterrorism operations and building capacity of the Afghan security forces.

South Asia Strategy Update

pp. 19-23, 69

- 3,500 additional U.S. troops are deploying to Afghanistan. There were 14,000 in country as of December.
- Most of these new troops will train, advise, and assist the Afghan forces at the tactical level.
- Expanded U.S. combat authorities allow offensive operations against the Taliban.
- The President submitted a budget amendment requesting an additional $1.2 billion for FY 2018 to support increased deployments.
- The Afghan government continued to focus on expanding its air force and special forces.
- The United States pressured Pakistan to cease support for insurgents by suspending almost all security assistance (up to $2 billion).

Oversight

pp. 74-77, 86, 88

10 REPORTS COMPLETED, addressing:

- The handling of allegations of child sexual abuse by Afghan security forces.
- Poor accountability that jeopardized $100 million in U.S.-supplied equipment to the Afghans.
- Oversight of counter-narcotics operations.

7 INVESTIGATIONS CLOSED, including:

- A U.S. contractor was sentenced to 21 months in prison for accepting $250,000 in kickbacks from an Afghan subcontractor.
- A former U.S. Government employee pled guilty to soliciting $320,000 in bribes from contractors.

Battle for Population Control Continues

pp. 27-28

- The Afghan government aims to have 80% of the population under its control by the end of 2019.
- 64% of Afghans live under government control,
 24% in contested areas, and 12% under Taliban control.
- No change in the percentage of the population under government control this quarter.
- A map of areas of control is in the full report (p. 27).

Political Tensions Increase

pp. 8, 28, 58

- Funding and logistical uncertainties and a vacant election commission chair put the July 2018 elections at risk.
- Governor Atta Noor refused to accept his controversial dismissal by President Ghani.
- First Vice President Dostum was in exile amid claims he ordered an opponent kidnapped and assaulted.
- Tribal militias controlled by major powerbrokers like Dostum and Noor complicate political disputes.

Security Situation Remains Highly Volatile

pp. 2-3

OCTOBER 17: Taliban militants killed more than 80 police personnel in two attacks on Afghan police facilities.

OCTOBER 19: Taliban attack on an Afghan army base killed 43 soldiers.

OCTOBER 20: ISIS-K suicide attack killed 50 worshippers at a Shia mosque in Kabul.

DECEMBER 28: ISIS-K suicide attack killed 41 people at a Shia cultural center in Kabul.

Record Opium Harvest

pp. 19-20, 24

- Opium cultivated land increased 63% since 2016, totaling 1,266 sq mi (slightly larger than Rhode Island).
- Opium production in 2017 could total 9,000 tons, nearly double the 4,800 tons produced in 2016.
- The Taliban exploit farmers to cultivate opium poppy in the rural areas under their control.
- U.S. and Afghan forces carried out airstrikes on Taliban drug processing facilities, costing the Taliban $16.5 million in lost revenue.

Humanitarian Assistance

pp. 62-64

- 1.9 million Afghans were internally displaced in 2017, up from 1.5 million in 2016.
- 900,000 Afghans will need shelter assistance in 2018.
- 377 incidents of violence were reported against aid workers in Afghanistan in 2017.
