

USAREUR CSM goes on air to discuss current enlisted issues

March 20, 2012

By U.S. Army Europe Public Affairs

HEIDELBERG, Germany -- U.S. Army Europe's senior enlisted advisor, Command Sgt. Maj. David S. Davenport Sr., will take to the airwaves starting today to communicate with USAREUR Soldiers.

"Straight from the CSM," a two-minute prerecorded radio show, will air on AFN's Morning News Watch and throughout the day every Wednesday on AFN's PowerNet.

Each week, Davenport – sometimes along with a guest subject matter expert – will address hot topics that impact on USAREUR Soldiers. Upcoming topics include personnel matters, retention changes, and sponsorship.

In addition to airing on AFN radio, listeners can find links to the shows on AFN's web site; Davenport's Facebook site; and his blog site.

Social Media
Facebook
Twitter
Flickr
YouTube

About us: U.S. Army Europe is uniquely positioned to advance American strategic interests across Eurasia and has unparalleled capability to prevent conflict, shape the environment and, if necessary, win decisively. The relationships we build during more than 1000 theater security cooperation events in more than 40 countries each year lead directly to support for multinational contingency operations around the world, strengthen regional partnerships, and enhance global security.