

New York, Oct. 26, 1922.

Dear Moorman:

Pursuant to authority contained in Col. Locke's letter of September 30th, we have purchased the 1922 edition of the Statesman's Year Book to replace the 1917 edition which we had. We are therefore mailing the old edition of the book under separate cover and would thank you kindly to have it returned to the Congressional Library and have the charge against us canceled.

Very sincerely yours,

Key
