

People Familiar with JapaneseArnell, C. J.

210 Boston Bldg., Seattle Washington.
Formerly Japanese Secretary at the American Embassy in Tokio. Very good knowledge of written and spoken Japanese.

Burke, H. R.

Office of Naval Intelligence, Washington, D.C.
Capable of translating Japanese documents.

Caldwell.

Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Carey, Otis

316 Twenty-Fifth Street, Ogden, Utah.
Lived 40 years in Japan. Has translated articles for magazines, etc. Has a knowledge of printed Japanese but not of the written "Grass hand". Doubtful of his ability to handle technical terms.

Cooke, Rev. A. W.

c/o Missions House, 121 Fourth Ave., New York.
A Japanese scholar. -- qualifications unknown.

Correll, Rev. I. H.

206 South 43d St., West Philadelphia, Pa.
Capable of translating Japanese documents.

Curtice.

State Department, Washington, D. C.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Cuthbert, Rev. W. J.

Grace Chapel, 415 East 13th St., New York
Speaks the language but can read only church forms.

- 2 -

Davidson, Rev. Charles S.

c/o Methodist Board of Foreign Missions,
150 Fifth Avenue, New York City.
Born in Japan 1877 and lived there except from 1890 to 1903 when in U. S. for his education. Appointed instructor in the Anglo-Japanese College in Tokio in 1907.
Member of Committee to translate the New Testament. In 1914 special interpreter in "Naval Scandal" case. Also a director of languages (Japanese) in Tokio. Is personally acquainted with Lt. Colonel Karl F. Baldwin, formerly M. A. at Tokio.

Davis, J. M.

347 Madison Avenue, New York City
Has a knowledge of Japanese language.

Dooman,

Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Has a knowledge of Japanese language.

Franklin, Dr. J. H.

American Baptist Foreign Mission Society,
Boston, Massachusetts.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Gleason, George

347 Madison Avenue, New York City.
Has a knowledge of Japanese language.

Gulick, S. H. (Very pro-Japanese)

c/o Congregational Foreign Mission Board,
14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.
Has an excellent knowledge of the Japanese language.

Guy, Professor H. H.

C/o The Pacific School of Religion,
2515 Hillegass Avenue, Berkeley, California.
Can read newspapers, books and magazines.
25 years work with Japanese. Expert in written forms of the Japanese language.

- 3 -

Harrington, Rev. C. K., -D.D.

311 Hudson Avenue, Albany, N. Y.
30 years a missionary in Japan. Has a very extensive knowledge of book and spoken Japanese. Translated the New Testament. In ill health at present.

Holton, D. C.

University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois.
Has a good knowledge of the Japanese language. Now in the Orient.

Howard, A. T.

Mission Room, U.S. Bldg., Dayton, Ohio.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Isaacs,

Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Pettee, J. H.

c/o Congregational Foreign Mission Board,
14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Peters, A.

Holland, Michigan.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

ROWLAND, George M.

Hotel Ramona, San Francisco, California.
32 years work in Japanese. Has wide knowledge of the language. Now in the Orient.

Spencer, Rev. David S.

43 West 18th Street, New York City.
Has a good knowledge of the language.

Tucker, Bishop H. St. G.

281 Fourth Avenue, New York City.
Is quite familiar with the Japanese language and and capable of translating documents. Will be in this country only a short time.

- 4 -

Wainwright, S. H.

c/o Hotel Arlington, 18 W. 25th St., New York.
Can translate printed Japanese with ease.

Warren, C. M.

c/o Congregational Foreign Mission Board,
14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Williamson,

Department of State, Washington, D. C.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

Young, T. A.

c/o Foreign Christian Missionary Society,
Cincinnati, Ohio.
Has a knowledge of the Japanese language.

- - - - oOo - - - -