UNITED STATES REPORTED WILLING TO FORGET EXEMPT INCIDENT

EXEMPT

3 Jan 64 1838

I was received this morning, Friday 3 January at 1100 hours by EXEMPT Foreign Minister EXEMPT - He told me that America is ready to forget entirely the incident with EXEMPT since EXEMPT has already denied having manifested any rejoicing over the death of [President] KENNEDY. President EXEMPT had an interview yesterday with Mr. EXEMPT and American Ambassador EXEMPT. The EXEMPT [Government] thinks that EXEMPT and America will be willing to forget any past incident and so will accept the formula of a joint statement.

President EXEMPT and Mr. EXEMPT wish sincerely to receive a trusted representative of EXEMPT in an interview in EXEMPT. But if, on the contrary, EXEMPT wishes for President EXEMPT to send a EXEMPT representative to EXEMPT the President will conform with the desire of EXEMPT. Meanwhile, the EXEMPT Foreign Minister is ordering Ambassador EXEMPT to return from EXEMPT. Unfortunately EXEMPT son just died in an accident in EXEMPT.
