

Reissue (T437)

NEW YORK From:

To: MOSCOW

No: 644

6 May 1944

LYuSYa[i] has advised that DEDUShKA[ii] has decided to divorce his wife and intends to marry LYuSYa. The latter is hesitating and asks ALEKSEJ[iii] how [5 groups unrecovered] to behave. Knowing LYuSYa we think that she would try to subject DEDUShKA to her influence, which would have an entirely deleterious effect on the staff of the PLANT[ZAVOD][iv]. D.'s wife intends to leave for home with her daughter at the end of the school year.

No. 354 6 May

MAJ[v]

Comments:

LYuSYa: Olimpiada Grigor'evna TRONOVA.

[i] DEDUSHKA: i.e. "GRANDPAPA," Evgenij Dmitrievich KISELEV, Soviet Consul-General in NEW YORK. [ii]

ALEKSEJ: Anatolij Antonovich YaKOVLEV. [iii]

ZAVOD: Soviet Consulate-General in NEW YORK. [iv]

[v] MAJ: Stepan Zakharovich APRESYaN.

Sec. 29 . . .

24 October 1972

