IRS

IRS File Free allows individuals to prepare and file their federal income taxes online for free.

For income $72,000 and below, guided preparation is available, and the online service does all the math! Free state returns may also be available depending on the state's enrollment in the program. For income $72,000 and above, free electronic forms are available and basic calculations are done with limited guidance.

There are additional resources available for current and former military members, combat service, and disabled veterans to ensure these members utilize their special tax benefits.

For more information on these services, call 800-829-1040 or visit <https://www.irs.gov/filing/free-file-do-your-federal-taxes-for-free>

Military One Source

Military One Source MilTax provides free tax services for all active duty military personnel and their dependents.

Their free services include assistance in tax preparation, e-filing, and financial counseling. The consultants at MilTax offer personalized support that addresses the realities of military life—deployments, combat and training pay, housing and rentals, multistate filings, living OCONUS, and more.

The MilTax services are available Mid-January through Mid-October. For more information on this resource, please contact: 800-342-9647 or visit <https://www.militaryonesource.mil/financial-legal/>

VITA

The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) is an IRS initiative that provides free tax preparation services for low to moderate income individuals, persons with disabilities, the elderly, and limited English speakers.
