

Overview: Radiological Retesting Fieldwork at Parcel B

Fieldwork Background

What is happening?

- Fieldwork in support of radiological retesting at HPNS Parcel B
 - Excavation, drilling, and sampling of former sanitary sewer/storm drain trenches
 - Collection of building samples

Why is the Navy doing fieldwork?

- To collect radiological results in soil and buildings
- To ensure public health and safety

General Schedule

When will work occur?

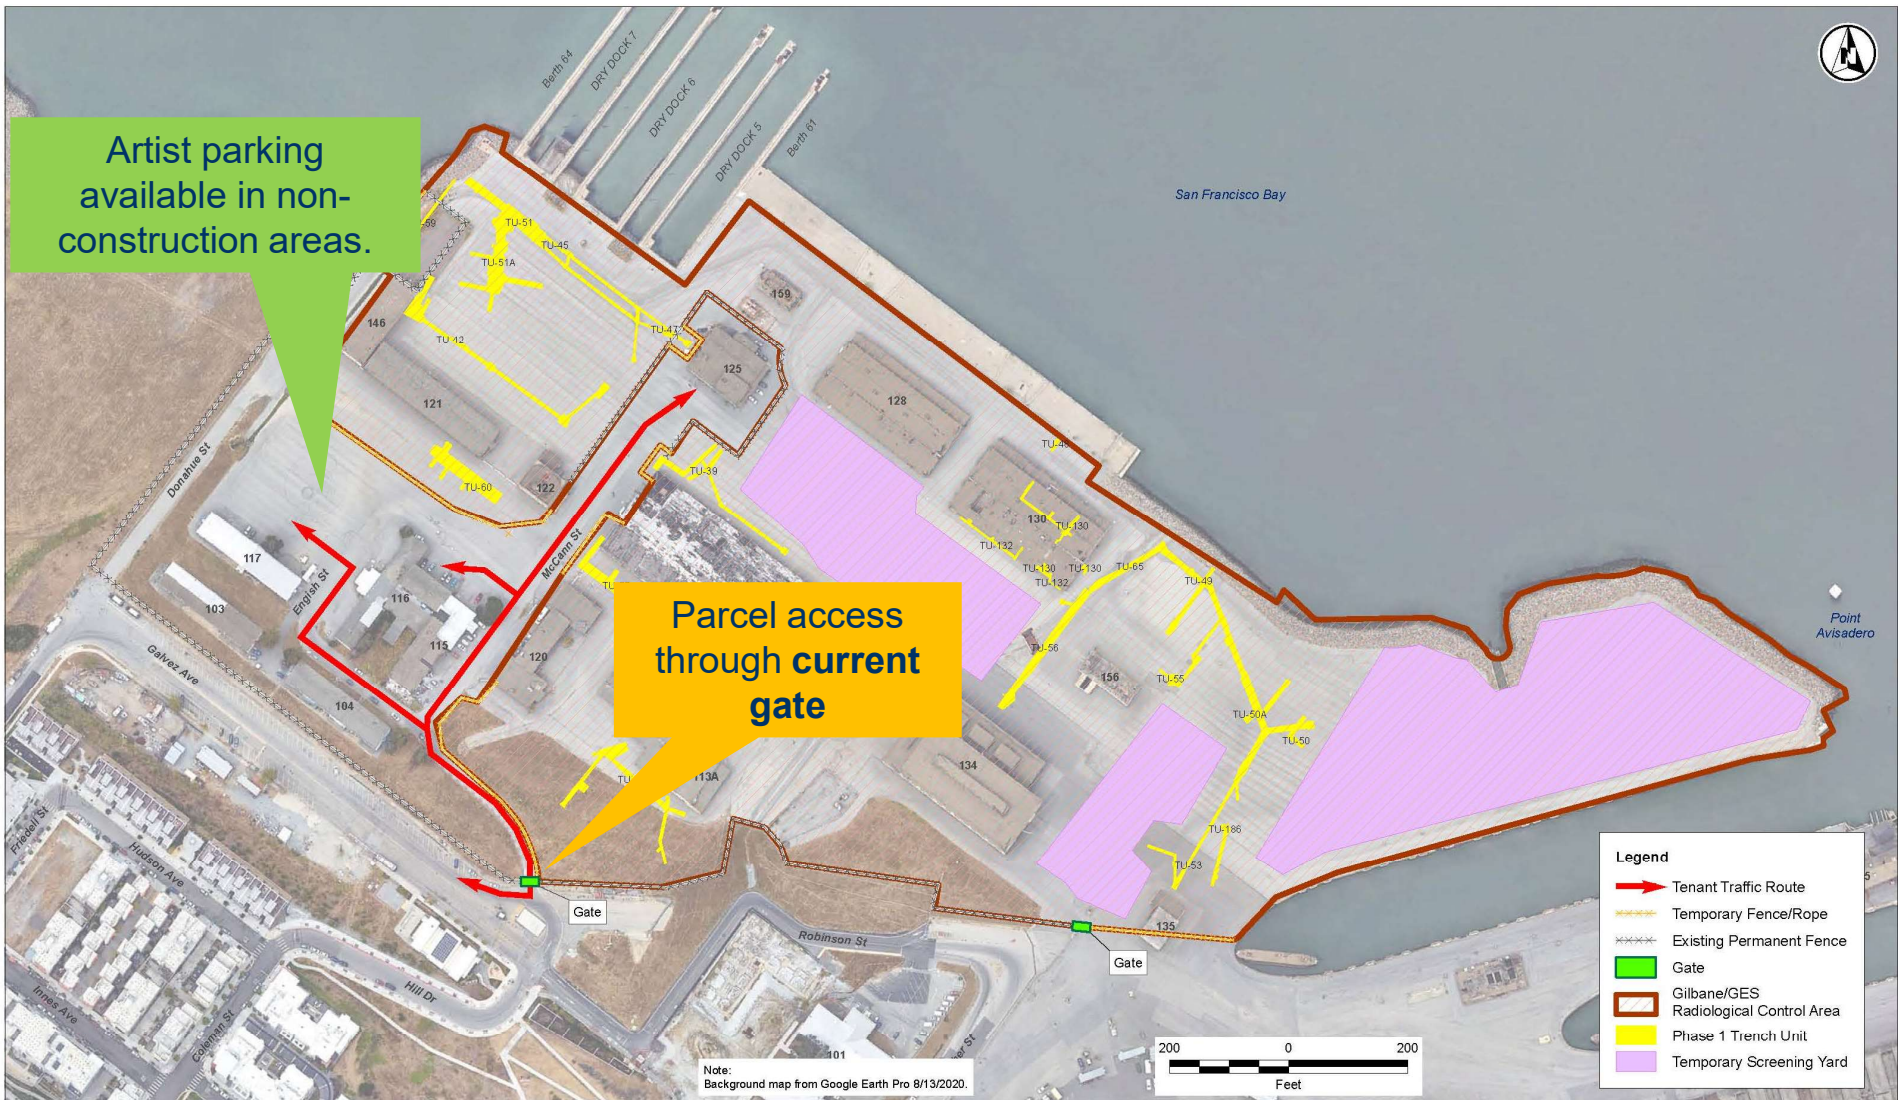

- May 2022 - Fieldwork Begins
 - Phased approach starts with excavations followed by sampling
 - Parcel access points and traffic routes will vary based on active fieldwork
- August 2023 – Estimated Completion
 - Trenches backfilled
 - Parcel asphalt surface restored

Where will work be done?

- Various areas on Parcel B
(see map, next page)

Parcel Access & Traffic Routes during Parcel B Fieldwork: May 2022 - March 2023*

*estimated dates

- Legend
- Tenant Traffic Route
 - Temporary Fence/Rope
 - Existing Permanent Fence
 - Gate
 - Gilbane/GES Radiological Control Area
 - Phase 1 Trench Unit
 - Temporary Screening Yard

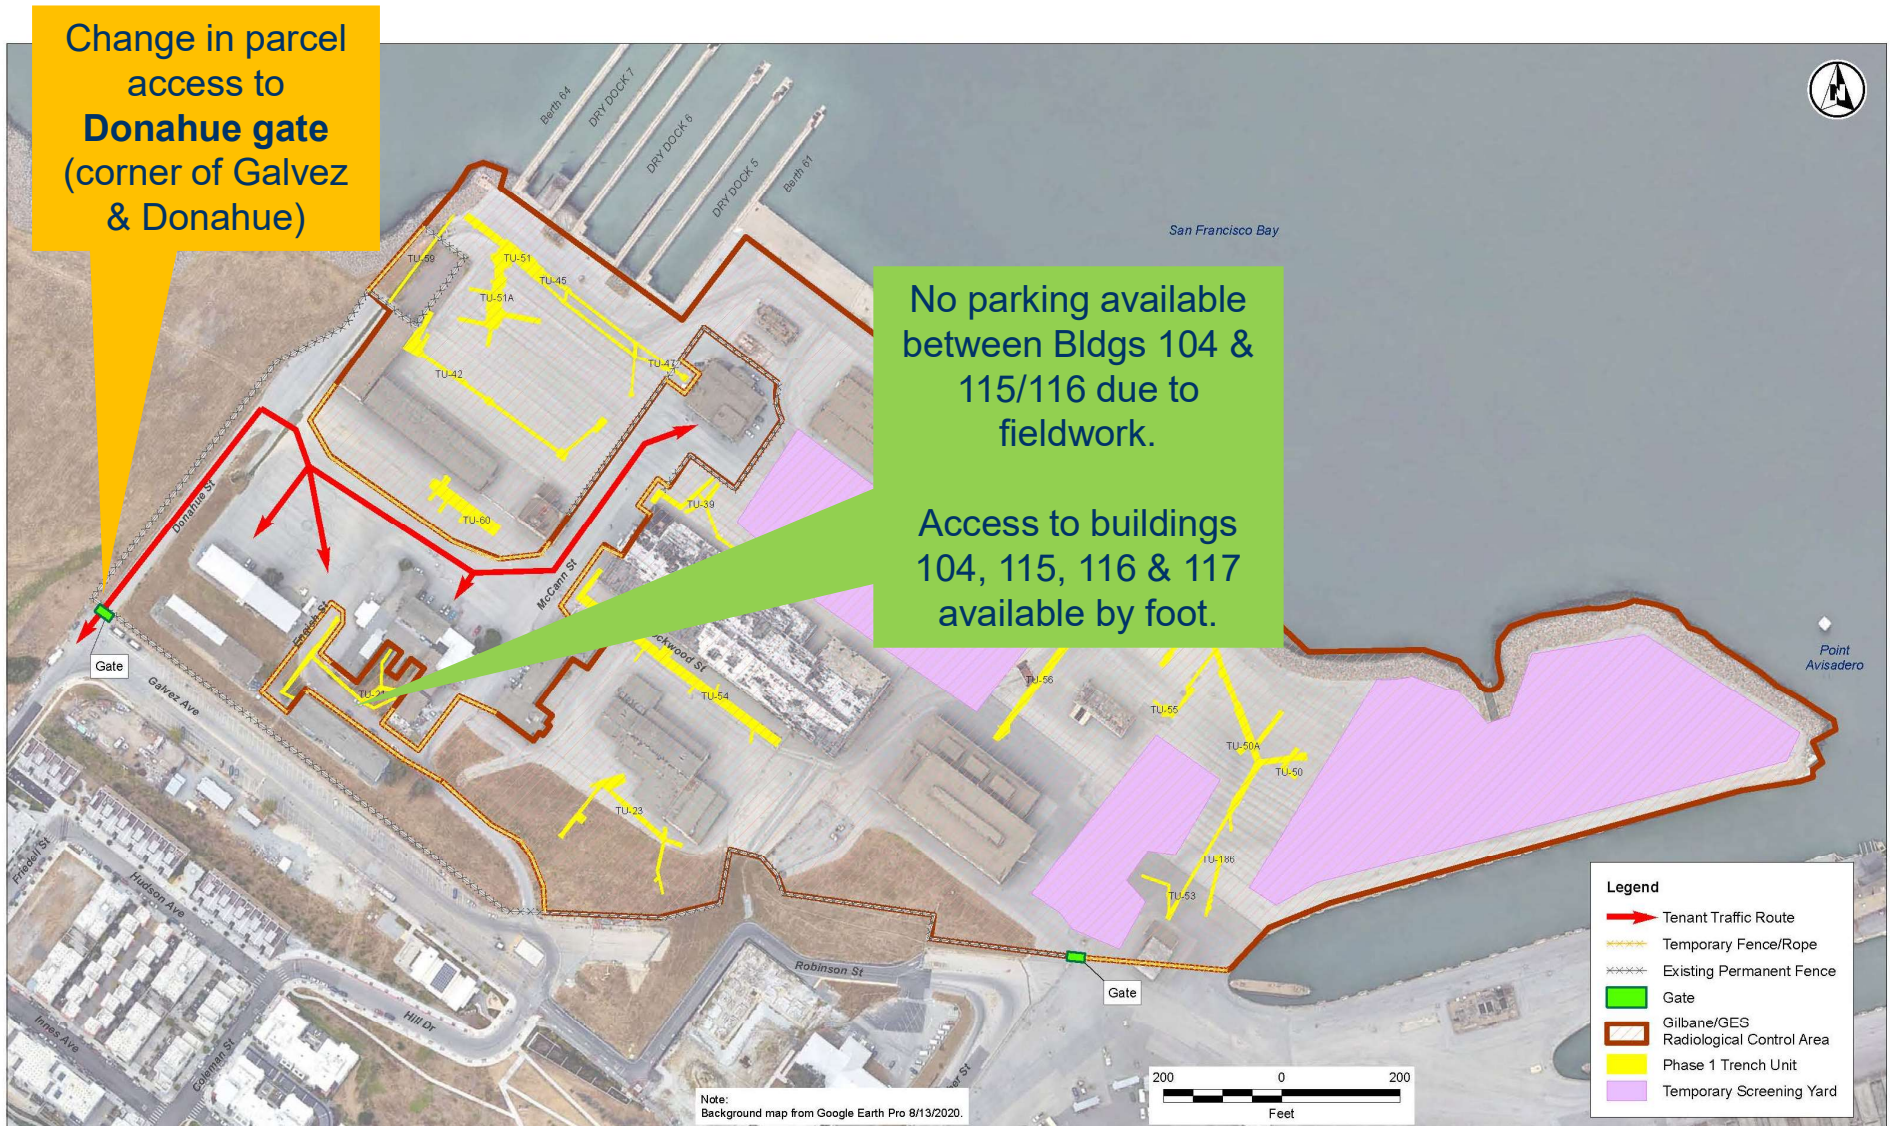

Traffic Control Plan
Radiological Investigation, Survey, and Reporting, Parcel B
 Hunters Point Naval Shipyard
 San Francisco, California

Figure 1
 Phase 1 Trenches
 TU-13, TU-19, and TU-21 inactive
 Tenant Traffic Scenario 1

Parcel Access & Traffic Routes during Parcel B Fieldwork: March 2023 – May 2023*

*estimated dates

Parcel Access & Traffic Routes during Parcel B Fieldwork: May 2023 – August 2023*

*estimated dates

Traffic Control Plan
Radiological Investigation, Survey, and Reporting, Parcel B
Hunters Point Naval Shipyard
San Francisco, California

Figure 3
Phase 1 Trenches
TU-13 and TU-19 active
Tenant Traffic Scenario 3