WHO MAKES UP THE MISSION?
A Demographic Breakdown of Civilian Employees at the National Security Agency

26.5% Minority Breakdown
- 12.8% Black
- 5.7% Hispanic
- 4.4% Asian
- 2.2% Two or More Races
- 0.3% American Indian/Alaska Native
- 0.1% Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander

Overall U.S. civilian labor force recorded by the U.S. Census is 72.4% non-minority and 27.6% minority

Male
58.7%

Female
41.3%

Overall U.S. civilian labor force recorded by the U.S. Census is 51.5% male and 48.5% female

12.6% are Persons with Disabilities

2.7% have a Targeted Disability*

*2.7% of the NSA civilian population, which is also accounted for in the overall 12.6% of persons with disabilities, includes persons experiencing deafness, blindness, missing extremities, partial paralysis, epilepsy, severe intellectual disabilities, psychiatric disabilities and dwarfism.

Updated: April 2022