CHAPTER 1 – PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

1.1. Through a partnership with Air Force Global Strike Command (AFGSC), funding is available for 100 cadets and 8 cadre to attend Red Flag – Nellis. Red Flag is a two-week advanced aerial combat training exercise held three times a year. It aims to offer realistic air-combat training for aircrew and support agencies from the United States and allied countries. This PDT is designed to increase cadet’s understanding and awareness of planning, executing, and debriefing combat sorties. Cadets will have the opportunity to observe mission planning, tactical decision making, communications, and team building throughout the week.
