

SCPO Scott M. Dupre
Command Senior Enlisted Leader (CSEL)
USCG Sector Boston, MA

Originally from Northbridge, Massachusetts, Senior Chief Petty Officer Dupre resides in Newport, Rhode Island with his wife Kerri, and their dog (Bella). He enjoys sports, playing golf and traveling. Some of his operational qualifications include:

41'UTB Engineer, 47'MLB Engineer, 25'RBS crewmember, Boarding Officer, Master Training Specialist, CISM Peer, ASIST, PROSCI Change Management, Command Drug and Alcohol Rep, Emergency Medical Technician, Search and Rescue Station Officer of the Day, 110' WPB and 295' WIX Engineer of the Watch.

Accession Source & Year:

Training Center Cape May (B-165) – April 2003

Senior Enlisted Leadership Courses:

Chief Petty Officer's Academy (Class 230 (CCXXX))

USCG Senior Enlisted Leadership Course (89)

Enlisted Joint Professional Military Education I

Enlisted Joint Professional Military Education II

Previous Assignments:

2003-2005- FN – Crewmember / Emergency Medical Technician - Coast Guard Station

Boothbay Harbor, ME

2005 - MK "A" School at TRACEN Yorktown

2005-2008 – MK3/MK2 – Officer of the Day - Coast Guard Station Castle Hill, Newport, RI

2008-2010 – MK2/MK1 – Main Propulsion Assistant - Coast Guard Cutter Tybee (WPB-1330)

Woods Hole, MA

2010 – 2014 – MK1 – Engineering Petty Officer - Coast Guard Station Boothbay Harbor, ME

2014 – 2017 – MK1/MKC - Recruit Company Commander - Coast Guard Training Center Cape

May, NJ 2017 – 2020 – MKC – Unit Command Chief / Assistant Engineer Officer - Coast Guard

Barque Eagle (WIX-327)

2020 – 2024 – MKC/MKCS – Officer Candidate School Company Chief – Officer Accessions and Transitions Department, Leadership Development Center, New London, CT

2024 - Present - MKCS - Command Senior Enlisted Leader, Coast Guard Sector Boston, MA

