

How to Begin: Filling out and submitting the application is the first step in requesting a certificate of pardon based on the President's June 26, 2024, proclamation pardoning individuals convicted of certain offenses under Article 125, Uniform Code of Military Justice. You will be asked to share details about yourself and information about your conviction.

Information Required: Please complete only the blocks indicated below and highlighted on the attached Application for Pardon After Completion of Sentence. While not required, including any case documents regarding your conviction may expedite processing your application.
