

Financial Literacy Training

Having a financially ready force prepares both Service Members and their families for potential changes that may occur throughout an individual's career. The Vermont National Guard Family Programs is dedicated to making sure that training is available to Service Members and their families at an individual's convenience.

Please fill out the information below and submit through the Vermont Family Programs folder at [Vermont National Guard Family Programs \(vt.gov\)](http://Vermont National Guard Family Programs (vt.gov)) or email to the Lead Military and Family Readiness Specialist Michael Shackford at john.p.mingo.civ@army.mil.

Name: _____

Unit: _____

Financial Milestones:

Pre-Deployment

Post-Deployment

Marriage

Divorce

First Child

PCS

Promotion

Vesting in TSP

Continuation Pay

Disabling Sickness

For more information and resources regarding Financial Literacy, please visit the following websites:

Community: Army Financial Readiness Program | milBook Home \(milsuite.mil\)

www.financialfrontline.org