(Report No. DODIG-2025-094)

We are revising this report to include three attachments to the Marine Corps Headquarters management comments we inadvertently omitted from the final report. These omissions were identified after final report issuance. These added attachments do not affect the overall findings, conclusions, and recommendations presented in the original version of this report.

We are also revising this report to update the Recommendations Table to correct a minor labeling error. This error was identified after final report publishing and issuance. This revision does not affect the overall findings, conclusions, and recommendations presented in the original version of this report.

Please refer to the accompanying report with these corrections incorporated, and destroy all previously issued copies of this final report. The corrected report is properly titled "Evaluation of the DoD's and Military Departments' Policies Regarding Responses to Allegations of Abuse at Child Development Centers." Only the report associated with this memorandum is considered the official final report.
