

Posted by [REDACTED] @ 2008-03-31 18:25:18

Tags: history, brown bag

Mood: calm

(U) "Brown Bag with a Historian" will be rescheduled for sometime in May

(U//FOUO) We're going to postpone our previously announced brown bag sessions for a month for a variety of reasons. Look for an announcement later in April, and continue to let us know what topics would interest you at lunchtime!

524 [REDACTED] @ 2008-03-31 20:39:08

(U) I took a couple of classes when I started here (Spy Maryland; Women in Espionage) which were cool but did NOT require a full 4 hours of time away from my desk.

(Although I may be mis-remembering.) How about little short sessions on those classes, or perhaps individual topics from those sorts of classes?

577 [REDACTED] @ 2008-04-02 16:28:08

Topic

Personally, I love Dave Hatch's Midway. He does a great telling of it. It never gets old.

599 [REDACTED] @ 2008-04-08 18:59:56

(U) I recently discovered, I believe by a side comment on a recent TalkNSA, that not every US Government agency has our Duly Constituted Board requirement (1 female, 1 minority member on all boards which make career-affecting decisions). I'd like to hear about the decisions, rulings, and most importantly the people and stories that actually brought about this policy for NSA. Maybe a joint CCH/EEOD presentation?

600 re 599 [REDACTED] @ 2008-04-08 19:48:26

(U) Interesting idea - we'll discuss the possibility of doing this!

(b) (3) - P.L. 86-36